The Democratic State Convention complete

The Convention that meets to-day has two courses before it—both as plain as pikestall and as free as Ohio whisken at the "xiii,"—Madison. Such is the opening paragraph of a long, homily addressed to the Democratic State Conven-tion, sitting at Madison, by the "official organ" of the party. The Argus evidently understands its men, and makes use of arguments and illustentions adapted to the comprehension of its " Forty" friends. Of course, they are quite sure to adopt that "course," which (to use the classical simile of the State paper) is "as free as Ohio tchiskey at the still."

Republican Delegate Elections.

FIRST AND SEVENTH WARDS .- Meeting organized by the appointment of \mathbf{W}_{M} . A. Prentiss, as Chairman, and J. R. Baignan and J. P. Fuchs, as Secretaries. On balloting for two Delegates 105 votes were polled, and E. Domschke and E. M. Josselin, receiving a majority, were declared duly elected.

On motion, John H. Twesov and Byson Paine were appointed alternates.

RUFUS KING, B. DOMSCHEE and EDWIN PAL-MER were appointed the District Committee for the ensuing year. Adjourned, Second WARD.-Meeting organized by choosing

J. A. PHELPS Chairman and L. J. McChacken, Secretary. On balloting for two Delegates, A. J. LANGWORTHY and WM. FRANKENPURTH received a majority of the votes cast and were declared duly elected. Messrs. W. FRANKENFURTH, J. B. SELBY and J. A. Puetrs were appointed the Ward Committee for the ensuing year. Adiourned.

THIRD WARD .-- The election for Delegator from this Ward drew out a large vote and resulted in the choice of HENRY MIDDLETON and HENRY FREEMAN. The Ward Committee for the year are E. W. CARPESTER, H. MIDDLETON AND H. FREEMAN.

FOURTH WARD.-Meeting organized by pointing H. H. West Chairman, and J. J. FAIR-BANKS, Secretary. S. M. BOOTH and J. FORD, were appointed Delegates, and Messas E. Shaw, WINFIELD SMITH, and J. J. FAIBBANKS, appointed the Ward Committee for the current year.

WHERE IS THE PROPLE'S MONEY .- We are credibly informed that a certain gondeman who sports the titles of Er-Railway President and Ex-Secretary, Grand Pacificator, &c., &c., has been in some way or other associated with Mr. Breslin in the control of the distributing the money that should be in the in distributing the money that should be in the Ohio State Treasury. Also, that a late Democratic Governor of Wiscousin has had a finger in the matter, and that one or two other gentlemen who are known, but whose names we have not ascertained, occupied prominent positions in the same connection; and farther, that a law suit is now pending in New York that will bring out all the facts.—Cincinnati Gazette.

Ill-natured people do say that the parties hinted at above, are none other than the illustrious GOV. WALKER of Kansan, and Ex-Governor Bansrow of Wisconsin, Mr. Breslin himself, the great Democratic defaulter, is anugly stowed away in Canada.

REDUCTION OF RATES.-In order to induce the shipment of grain from Iowa this way, the Mil-wankee & Mississippi R. R. Co. advertise that they will ship wheat from Prairie du Chien to they will ship wheat from Prairie du Chien to supplant it by a black democratic instrument.

The rate from Madison is also reduced to 11c on whest, and 7c on oats, from the same date.

When the nominatition of Mr. Cares was made,

thus gave vent to its feelings;

the following from the commercial columns of the New York papers of Wednesday:

The Democratic State Convention completed their labors yesterday, and filed out the ticket with which they propose to go to the people in November. They have dropped Messrs, W. R. SMITH, Attorney General, W.M. Dennis, Comptroller, Kuzhin, Treasurer, and Barry. State Superinteudent, and nominated new, but not stronger men in their places. E. D. Gampell, of La Crosse, takes the place of Lieut. Gov. Mc. Arrend, and Messrs. Jones, Secretary of Sonte, and McGarry, State Prison Complissioner, are re-nominated. The ticket is throughout of the Barstow stripe: the "Anties" having been heater at all points.

There says the punite was dealing in the deline in ralroad stocks and in tracks and it RAILROAD STOCKS .- The Hereld says " Wall cated it, and the losser must have been very great. The domaid from the short interest was active, and a good many time contracts were closed up. The stock bought for delivery must soon come upon the market again, for parties receiving cannot carry it undor the present state of money matters and public confidence. The great fall to-dey was the first effect of large failures; but as the follares les loose vast quantities of callond stocks, which must be sold, no one can form any idea of the decline in market value that must follow."

Collision on the Galetta Ruilroad—One Man Killed and two Persons Serious—Iy Wounded—Cars muched Up.

Yesterday morning as the passenger train on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad was crossing the Rock Island road, in this city, the train ran into a Michigan Southern freight train, smashing a coupled the bindermost cars and spilling out their contents and damaging the locomotive of the Burlington train. This accident delayed the train till 2.45 r. m., when it started again for its destination.

But the villainous system of legal persecution But the villatious system of legal persecutions—or ruther persecutions under the forms of law—has not been abandoned. Walker has renewed them. Arrests are being made in every direction. Lawrence alone is exempt. Troops are encamped near Lawrence. Their force is daily augmenting. On Tuesday another company of dragoons was added to the "army of occupation." There is some object in these movements. Some say that the tax is to be collected here. Proslavery leaders have said so. Somination for Governor.

As was generally anticipated, the Democratic State Convention have pitched upon Mr. JAMES E. Gaors, the Mayor of this city, as their candidate for Governor at the approaching full electtion. This choice may seem a singular one, in view of the fact that the majority of the delegates from this city and county were opposed to the nemination of Mr. Cuoss, and in favor of that of Dr. HEUSECHMAN. But the result was controlled by the leaders who had fixed in advance upon Mr. Onoss, and were not to be driven from this choice by any popular manifestations on the

Mr. Oross has been for a number of years more or less in public life, and has acquitted himself respectably. He is a gentleman of fair abilitles, though of negative, rather than positive qualities. He has been prosperous in business, and is now President of a bank-a circumstance which will, of course, commend like to the earnest support of the Anti-Rank Democracy. He has always been a zeelous partison, and a devoted adherent of the Barstow party. His nomination, indeed, is their triumph and sudorsement, and his election would be a " restoration of the Bourbons." But however acceptable to the Barstow leaders, it by no mains follows that the nomination of Mr. Cross will be catisfactory to the rank and file. His identification with the Barstow wing of the party is too intimate and complete, to be at all palatable to the "saties," and their murmurs of dissatisfaction are audible on every side. In Mr. Croes, the Republicans see the one bodiment of co-called "National Democracy."

His political principles quare with the "Cincinnai platform," and are trimmed to suit the various emendations and interpretations of this instruction, put forth, from time to time, by that great exponent and regulator of modern democracy, the Washington Union. Thus he believes in the Kinsen-Nebusaka will; has an abiding latting in Gov. Walker; supports the bogas laws of the Mesouri Borderers; sustains the Fugirive Slave insetting. Miesouri Borderers; sustains the Fugitive Slave Act; swears by the Dred Scott decision; and, to sum up all, religiously holds with his organ the News, that the attempt to elevate a black and debased race (the colored people of America, menning) is in striking opposition to common sease and Christian duty!" Is that the sort of man to make GOVARNOR OF WISCONSIN!

The whole fully of Postmasters.

The News of vesterday addresses on affection ase exhortation, nearly a cultum long, to Democratic office holders, upon " the interesting subject of their particip duties," in the course of which it especially incultates upon Democratic Post moviers the propriety of bestiring themselves more actively as agents for Democratic popers. We opy some passages from this politica

Borous:

By their great number and by their immediate assert that with the prople, Fort Masters have excellent appointments of serving the purry and the conduct. If mess appointment saw in gleen by any one or them, it is plain democratic doctring that he should be "rateled." But, in acthe country. To the Editor of the N. Y. Tribane. Sin: The Essang Stor of the 1sth met., published at Wg-hington, and which is evidently in the secrets of the North Western grand speculating schemas, comes voluntarily and very innocently to the defense of the Government Agents who have recently given away, under the name of sale, that immake military depot known as of sale, that immake military depot known as Fort Snelling. The most amusing part of the delense is that, admitting the complaints are some and deep, he saddles them upon the Reputhican party, and thanks to change the matter from a strictly business or financial into a political question. A short sketch of this property will expose The Elect applicity and the conduct of the Agents.

Immense same of money wage expended year after year construct ing here of solid mesoury what in most inland force is formed of square timber and rough pickets In 1849-50 the Government purchased from he Indians the entire Territory of Minnesons, and then commenced the growth of two cities on either side of this military post, St. Paul and St. l either side of this military post, St. Paul and St. Anthony, the aggregate population of which is at this time over 29,000. In 1353-54 the peo-pie, being crowded for apace, petitioned Congress through their belegate to throw a portion of the ten-antereservation into market, whice was done, remaining with the Fort but one talte square, the property now in question.

The present value per acre of the lands thrown into merket in 1855-04 is very easily ascertained. They range from $100 to $500 per sere, and as they lay sround and adjudning the recent sale, of course the same causes which made the old tosteration valuable apply also to this. The growth written the country and impressing the country and of cities, the peopling and improving the country, the accolopment of manufacturing, the construction with Government funds of excellent reads, the crewding of the Mississippi river with

I will now proceed to demonstrate the above to be correct, as much least as relates to the land.
Two years ago I offered a man on the old Reserve $10,000 for 160 acres. He said he refused to sell to Mr. Breekereridge (now Vice-Postdent) for $12,000. Last Spring I (ried to purchase 160 acres on the old Receive still nighter the ort, and have the man's letter now before me, eaying he will not sell under £150 per acre.
